From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 22.

Rome, Oct. 21.

AN Act having been pass'd not long since, by which all the Fiefs possess'd by the Roman Barons are subjected to the Congregation of the civil Government, the said Barons have made Application to his Holiness, to represent to him the Prejudice they should suffer, if this Act which deprives them of their usual Jurisdiction, should be put in force: Several Cardinals have address'd his Holiness upon it in Behalf of their Relations; and the Constable Colonna and the Prince de Borghese have taken upon them to solicit this Affair, in the Name of the Roman Barons. The Pope has given the Bishoprick of Luca to Signior Spada, his Nuncio in Poland, reserving out of the Revenues of that Bishoprick a Pension of 1000 Crowns, for a Person not yet nominated. That Nuncio has sent hither a Declaration of King Augustus of Poland, wherein his Majesty says he has caus'd the Bishop of Posenia to be seiz'd only in order to send him hither to be tried; notwithstanding that by the Laws of Poland no Senator can be made a Prisoner, under any Pretence whatever, nor tried but by a General Diet. A poor Carter who was wounded in several Places by the Imperial Ambassador's Servants, is dead of those Wounds; and several Proclamations have been publish'd for apprehending the Assassins.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 13.

Rome, October 25. The Pope holds Congregations frequently about the Affairs of Europe, particularly of Italy. 'Tis talk'd that at Christmas his Holiness will make a Promotion of Cardinals, to supply the 17 Places that are vacant in the Sacred College; Mean time 'tis computed the Abbeyes and other Ecclesiastical Benefices vacant amount to 52000 Crowns per Annum; all which Sum the Pope has to bestow among his Creatures. The deceased Cardinal Barbarino having been Protector of the Kingdom of Poland, his Obsequies were solemniz'd a few days ago in the Church of St. Stanislaus belonging to the Polish Nation, in the Presence of the Queen Dowager of Poland, and a great Number of Persons of Quality of both Sexes. The Treasurer Corsini has made an End of taking Informations about General Paulucci and others of the Pope's Officers, who some time since suffer'd the French to surprize and drive the Imperialists out of the Ferrareze.

Rome, Oct. 25. The 22d instant the Chevalier Fontana (the Pope's chief Architect,) tried to raise the Columna Antonina, with an Engine provided for that purpose; but in the first Attempt a large piece of Timber breaking, another was put into its place, and a second Essay was made; but then several other pieces of great Timber (part of the Engine,) breaking, without stirring the Column, (which weighs about 800000 weight,) he was forc'd to give over the Attempt, to his great Discredit, several Persons of great Quality, and a Crowd of other People, being present. He is preparing a stronger Machine for this Work.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 20.

Rome, Nov. 1. Two or three days ago the Duke d'Uzeda, Ambassador of Spain, passing by the Palace of the Count de Lamberg the Emperor's Ambassador, a Savoyard, who is a Servant to one of the Pope's Guard of Cuirassiers, came to his Coach-side and cried out Long Live the Emperor; The Duke apprehending this to be the Prelude of some Insult the Germans intended to make upon him, call'd out immediately to his Servants and commanded them not to touch the Savoyard, to prevent the Disorder that might have risen by the Count de Lamberg's Servants rushing out to his Assistance. But as soon as he got to his own Palace, he sent his Complaints to the Governour of the City, who caus'd the Savoyard to be taken up, and by Order of the Pope, he has since been condemn'd to the Gallies for 5 Years.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Nov. 25.

Madrid, Nov. 7. The 4th inst. being the day on which Charles II. died was celebrated here; their Majesties and all the Court assisting at the divine Service solemnly perform'd on that Occasion; 4 Noblemen only excepted; who out of the peculiar Veneration they have for the Memory of that Prince, went to the Church of the Escorial where his Body is deposited. Don Emanuel d'Arias Archbishop of Sevil, Councillour of the Council of State and of the King's Cabinet, having taken Leave of their Majesty's yet out from hence the 31st of last Month, to go to Sevil. The Count de Montijo, Councillor of State, died some days days ago. The Marquis of Gironela, Governour of Ceuta, who had signaliz'd himself by long and vigorously defending that Place, being dead, the King has appointed Don Francisco Manrique Governour of Oran to succeed him; and the Government of Oran is conferr'd on Don Carlos Caraffa. The Duke of Berwick arriv'd here last Week, having left the Army on the Frontier of Castile to be commanded by the Marquis de Thoy; he is lodg'd in the Palace of the Duke de Gramont Ambassador of France, waiting the Arrival of the Marshal de Tesse; the King caus'd him to be receiv'd with distinguishing Marks of Honour, and with his own Hands put about his Neck the Collar of the Order of the Golden Fleece. The King has given to the Duke of Gandia, the Amirante of Castile's House call'd los Mosenfes.
